Summary of Proposed Ordinance and Statement of Public Purpose to be Served

On February 22, 2022, the City Council approved hiring a consultant to conduct a Municipal Code Audit to identify conflicts in the code, eliminate redundancy, revise the code for clarity, and update references to State law. On April 2023, Mr. Jeff Katims presented his findings and recommendations to the City Council which included streamlining, organizing, and more effectively aligning the City's Code of Ordinances with existing State statutes and regulations, specifically:

- " Centralizing and consolidating penalties and abatement areas of the Code
- " Standardizing appeals and definitions
- " Relocating chapters on sexual predator and hurricane preparedness
- " Placing fees and applications in separate documents
- " Determining if any policies should become administrative policies outside of the Code of Ordinances

Revisions to the Code of Ordinances were non-substantive.
