EXHIBIT A DEVELOPMENT REVIEW AND PERMIT FEES

v. 11/18/24

Cost Recovery and Fee Schedule.

A. Consultants.

1. The City Manager and/or his/her designee as part of the review of any development application presented to the City, may refer any such application to such engineering, planning, legal, technical, environmental, or other professional(s) consultants employed or retained by the City ("consultant(s)") as the manager shall deem reasonably necessary to enable him/her to review such application as required by law.

2. Charges made by such consultants shall be made pursuant to an existing contractual agreement by and between the City and the consultant.

3. The consultant's services shall be charged at the hourly rates specified in the particular consultant's agreement with the City. Upon request, the City shall provide the applicant with a copy of the consultant's invoice for any services charged.

B. Cost recovery established.

1. The City Manager and/or his/her designee may also charge an amount equal to or double the amount of the application fees.

2. Payment in full by the applicant for the City's cost recovery fees for review of the application shall be a written condition of any development order. These cost recovery fees shall be in addition to any and all other fees required by law, rule, or regulation of the City Code.
- C. Review of consultant's charges. Upon a determination by the City Manager or his/her designee that there has been a miscalculation concerning a consultant's fees, the City Manager or his/her designee is authorized to review the charges and issue a credit or refund a portion of the fees.
- D. Schedule of fees and cost recovery. No new development application shall be accepted and no building permit or certificate of occupancy shall be issued for any property until all application fees and cost recovery fees and fines related to the property (including fees related to any previous development proposal applications on the property), have been paid in full. If application is withdrawn for any reason payment is due in full at time of withdrawal.
- E. Public/Legal Notices. In addition to the fees required herein, all costs of newspaper notices and required notices for public petitions shall be paid in full prior to a scheduled public hearing. If such payment is not received prior to a schedule public hearing, the petition will be continued and rescheduled. Any additional cost associated with a rescheduled item shall also be paid in full prior to the public hearing. Advertising for public hearings shall be prepared by staff and submitted to the newspaper as required in the Marco Island Land Development Code (LDC).
