Hi Ellen,

A pre-application meeting is typically meant for new construction. Regarding this lot, I recall we have discussed this in the past and honestly, it is not needed to gather everyone to discuss a proposed rezone. If the rezone is approved, a pre-application meeting will be needed any proposed development.

Thanks

Respectfully,

Hi Mary,

We are preparing to submit a rezone request for the property located at 531 S Collier Blvd. I was looking at the website and couldn't find much information, but do you all hold a pre-application meeting for this type of petition? If so, what are the steps to request a meeting?

Thank you!
