Qualifications

Please list your community activities and positions held (Example: Civic clubs, neighborhood associations, etc.):

None; I'm just a regular person enjoying life on Marco Island.

Why do you want to serve on the City Council?

- I greatly value the quality of life I have been enjoying as a legal resident of Marco Island since November 1, 2022 and as a part time resident for 10 years prior to that. I believe my career experiences could be useful to the City towards continuing and building on the top notch nature of this community and am willing to contribute my time towards that goal.

What issues do you think should be addressed by the City Council?

- Continuing to foster excellent City services for the benefit of residents. Ensuring that tax dollars are wisely and efficiently spent. Encouraging transparency and accessibility of local government to its residents and constituents. Fairly assessing issues that come before the Council using common sense good judgement.
