

White paper

Code Enforcement Issues

Howard Reed

The Marco Island Code of Ordinances is administered by dedicated, hardworking Code Enforcement Officers. Two areas of concern regarding this process have surfaced recently. The City Council may provide additional direction to the City Manager that may improve how these issues are handled.

1. Enforcement of the Sign Ordinance regarding placement of signs in the public right of way.
2. Interpretation and enforcement of the Ordinances regarding the parking of trailers on residential lots.